

* SYSTEMS APPROACH to MANAGEMENT: ->

- INPUTS:
1. HUMAN
 2. CAPITAL
 3. MANAGERIAL
 4. TECHNOLOGICAL

- Goal Inputs of claimants
- > Employees
 - > Consumers
 - > Suppliers
 - > Stockholder
 - > Other

[EXTERNAL ENVIRONMENT]

Managerial knowledge, goals of claimants, and use of inputs (PART I), The BASIS OF GLOBAL Management Theory AND PRACTICES.

PLANNING

ORGANIZING

STAFFING

LEADING

CONTROLLING

REENERGIZING the SYSTEM

Facilitated by communication that Also links the organization with the EXTERNAL ENVIRONMENT.

EXTERNAL-ENVIRONMENT

- EXTERNAL VARIABLES AND INFORMATIONS
1. OPPORTUNITIES
 2. CONSTRAINTS
 3. Other

TO PRODUCE OUTPUTS

[EXTERNAL ENVIRONMENT]

- OUTPUTS
1. Products
 2. SERVICES
 3. Profits
 4. SATISFACTION

ELEMENTS OF MANAGEMENT:

→ The Six Elements of Management are as follows.

- [1] Determine objectives - Planning.
- [2] To setup an organization and assign Responsibility organization.
- [3] To Interrelate and direct activities - Command.
- [4] To Set standards AND effect Control Accordingly - Controlling.
- [5] To Motivate AND Socialize the employee group motivation.
- [6] To Cause Cooperation Among Various Factor of production and organized group of PERSONNEL
- [7] Coordination.